The International Movement 'We are Church' (IMWAC)

wishes to express its joy with regard the Christian decision taken by the Anglican Church - which intends to consecrate as bishops those daughters of God who may be called to such a task.

IMWAC would also like to regret the unchristian attitude of the Vatican establishment which, once again, usurping its mission, has come out in criticism of our Anglican brothers and sisters over the decision. They will end up by seeing the light, but it is still going to take a long time.

On our part, we shall continue to work within the Roman Catholic Church for the vision of an inclusive community.

International Movement We Are Church Background Information

The International Movement We Are Church, founded in Rome in 1996, is represented in more than twenty countries on all continents and is networking world-wide with similar-minded reform groups. We Are Church is an international movement within the Roman-Catholic Church and aims at renewal on the basis of the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965). We Are Church was started in Austria in 1995 with a church referendum.
